

Mark Bruzonsky

Mark@Bruzonsky.com / (202) 495-1235

America's Chem and Nuke Middle East Superpower

14 09 2013

There is a country in the Middle East that has refused to sign the international treaty prohibiting chemical weapons, the same treaty the Syrians have now been coerced into signing.

This same country has refused all international efforts for international inspection about weapons of mass destruction — nuclear, chemical and biological.

Indeed this same country has for decades used clandestine means to build